

Small Group Questions:

Please discuss whichever questions your group finds most helpful.

- When did you experience God this week?
 - Maybe there a passage of Scripture that you read that impacted you?
 - Or someone showed you Jesus in a practical way?
- Share one takeaway from the sermon with the group.
- Mike noted 5 things that the incarnation teaches (see below). Which point resonates with you the most and why?
 - It changes everything. If you can accept the incarnation, all of the stories start to make sense.
 - It's a beacon of hope. There's more than this life.
 - It suggests that life really matters. There is no sacred/secular divide, but everything matters to God.
 - It suggests that God is both holy and loving.
 - It suggests that we can approach God. Jesus came as a baby and babies are the definition of approachable.
- Is there anything that you heard that challenged or convicted you?
- Read Philippians 2:1-11 and discuss.
- What are some practical ways you can have the same mindset as that of Christ Jesus (Phil. 2:5)?
- How can we pray for each other's relationship with God this week?
- How can we pray for our relationships with others this week?
- Is there anything need that you have that the group can pray for or directly help with?
